

Fall 2025, KECNY Korean Language Course Syllabus

1. Class: Korean 2

This is a class for those transitioning from beginner(101) level to intermediate level (201). Some of the most frequently used endings (e.g. -게, -래, 겠) will be introduced while reviewing the basic conjugations such as polite ending(-요), past tense(았/었다), and infix -시-, etc. Focus will be on listening and speaking with necessary grammars and the goal is to improve the learners' ability to listen and speak basic Korean sentences.

2. Instructor: Michael Huh

Email : o-huh2010@nlaw.northwestern.edu

Mr. Huh received his B.A. in Linguistics and M.A. in Economics from Seoul National University, Seoul, Korea. Then he earned his J.D. at Northwestern University, admitted to the New York State Bar and remains in good standing. Mr. Huh has taught Korean at National University of Kyiv, Kyiv, Ukraine, and is currently teaching Korean at Nassau Community College, Garden City, New York.
